THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 20, 1979

Dear Senator Levin:

The President asked me to acknowledge his receipt of your letter of October 31 regarding the case of Raoul Wallenberg. The President appreciates your comments; as you know, he shares your concern.

The President has asked me to show your letter to several of his advisers, so that they might be aware of your interest. A more detailed response should be forthcoming.

Sincerely,

Frank Moore
Assistant to the President
for Congressional Liaison

The Honorable Carl Levin
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510
